

A decorative invitation card for a Silver Jubilee. The card features a central ornate silver frame containing the text. The frame is surrounded by a lush arrangement of roses in shades of grey, pink, and white, with green leaves and thorns. At the bottom corners, there are two lit candles in ornate silver holders, with soft light emanating from them. The background is a light, textured cream color with faint, repeating watermarks of the word 'PREVIEW' in a golden-yellow font.
